Lesson Five
Buying a Home
Buying a home is easier than you might think – we'll walk you through the five basic steps.

phase 1: determine home-ownership needs
- What type of housing should I buy?
- How much can I afford to spend?

phase 2: locate and evaluate a home
- Where do I want to live?
- What aspects of the home need improvement?

phase 3: price the property
- What is an appropriate market price?
- How much negotiation movement exists?

phase 4: obtain financing
- How much down payment is available?
- What are current mortgage rates?
- Can I qualify for a mortgage?
- What type of mortgage should I get?

phase 5: close the purchase transaction
- What funds and documents will be needed for the closing?
- Is everything understood before the final signing?
your mortgage acceptance will be based on your credit record.
The amount of the mortgage for which you qualify will be influenced by:

- Your income
- The amount available for a down payment
- Current mortgage rates
types of mortgages

fixed-rate, fixed-payment mortgages:
- Conventional 30-year mortgage
- Conventional 15- or 20-year mortgage selling your home

before putting your home on the market, make any preparations that could increase appeal and market value

■ Make necessary repairs
■ Paint exterior and interior areas
■ Update various features (such as new carpeting or plumbing fixtures) determine the selling price, based on:

■ An appraisal to estimate current market value
■ The location, features, and age of the home
■ Current mortgage rates and market demand in your area

decide if you will do a "sale by owner"

■ Advertise your home in various media (e.g., newspapers, internet, flyers)
■ Be ready to meet and show your home to prospective buyers
■ Make use of the services of a lawyer and/or title company for the legal aspects

consider using the services of a real estate agent

■ Interview two or more agents to compare their services and experience
■ Expect the agent to provide a marketing plan and to handle the financial and legal aspects of the sale
■ Communicate with the agent on a regular basis regarding the selling price and prospective buyers
